

ST. THOMAS MORE HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI HALL OF FAME

Tony Crivello (TM '73)

Anthony Crivello began his rise to fame at an early age, performing as a youngster in many theatrical productions. His talent and love for the Fine Arts was evident in the productions he appeared in while at Pio Nono and Thomas More. Upon graduation from Thomas More in 1973, he attended Marquette University on a Fine Arts Scholarship.

Tony moved on to do theatre work in Chicago, and following that had a run on Broadway beginning in 1981. He has also worked extensively in Off-Broadway and regional theatres. Tony's talents are not limited to the stage. He has appeared in numerous prime-time series, daytime dramas, and feature films.

Broadway's highest accolade was bestowed upon Tony when he was awarded the 1992 Tony Award for best performance by a featured actor, for his portrayal of Valentin in the Broadway musical Kiss of the Spider Woman. He also is actively involved in and devotes time to numerous charities.
